

GOD'S GIFT

Each day I wake and look toward the sky
I ponder the reason, when and why.

But when I think of where this all came
Knowing His love will forever remain.

The words are there if we take time to look
The answers are found written in His book.

Each person was given, a divine inspiration,
Do not neglect this gift, in moments of desperation.

Seek all wisdom and strength from within,
that is where god's gifts really begin.
